

Creating an effective working environment

Our stylish retreat located just one mile from the A1 north of Grantham offers some of the best conference facilities in the east midlands. Accredited with the Condé Nast Johansens promise you are assured of top quality facilities and service.

With three conference suites and additional meeting rooms we can cater for both and small groups accommodating up to 300 delegates theatre style.

We have designed our conference packages to meet the business market, however we appreciate your requirements may be different to our standard packages and can therefore design a package to suit your needs. To make life just that little simpler our 8 and 24hour delegate packs include room hire and standard equipment.

One of our conference coordinators will work with you from your initial enquiry, through to your conference/meeting to ensure your requirements are met and your conference is a resounding success.

The charm of The Olde Barn Hotel, and perfect country location create an effective environment that helps you achieve the results you are looking for.

In addition to conferences we can offer:

The Office Christmas Party

Your Staff Summer Barbeque

Exhilarating, team building corporate days

We want your stay with us to be an enjoyable one. With exquisite food served in the atmospheric Barn Restaurant and Bar and our state of the art Health Club & Spa you can relax after that busy conference.

We look forward to welcoming you and hosting your event.
